

Permissions & Usage Rights

The Keeper at the Inn – Event Package

Thank you for investing in The Keeper at the Inn.

We created this Event Package to make it easy for churches, schools, ministries, and families to share the heart of Christmas without wondering whether they have permission to use the materials in the way they need to use them.

The short version is this:

You're covered.

Use it.

Enjoy it.

Adapt it to fit your community.

Create memories.

Why This Document Is Included

This document is included so your church or organization can feel confident using the materials you received.

You have purchased more than a video or a book.

You have received a ministry event package.

That means you have permission to present the story, print the materials, customize the program, and use the included resources for your church, school, family, or community event.

We want you to feel free to use these resources generously and confidently.

You Are Welcome To:

- ✓ Present The Keeper at the Inn Story Event in your church, school, ministry, family gathering, or community event.
- ✓ Use the event materials multiple times.
- ✓ Make this part of an annual Christmas tradition.
- ✓ Customize the program template with your church name, announcements, order of service, and event details.
- ✓ Print the program in full color on card stock, black and white on standard copy paper, or whatever best fits your budget and resources.
- ✓ Reprint additional programs as needed for your event.
- ✓ Use the included videos on the computer, projector, television, or presentation system of your choice.
- ✓ Use the PowerPoint presentation, MP4 video, or streaming links according to what works best for your setting.
- ✓ Adapt the order of service to fit the needs and traditions of your congregation.
- ✓ Invite families, grandparents, guests, and community members to participate.

A Few Things We Ask You Not To Do

Please do not resell the downloadable files.

Please do not redistribute the downloadable files outside your church, school, ministry, or organization.

Please do not post the event videos publicly online for unrestricted viewing or downloading.

Please do not reproduce the materials for commercial sale.

Please do not claim the story, artwork, video, music, or materials as your own original work.

About the Hardcover Books and Companion CD

The original hardcover books included in this package contain a companion CD featuring Steve McCurdy's narration accompanied by music composed and performed by Ken Medema.

The CD may be used by the families, churches, schools, or ministries receiving the books as part of the normal use of the book.

The Event Package videos and presentation materials are separate resources created to help you present the story in a group setting.

Our Intent

Most churches and ministries simply want to do the right thing.

This document exists not to limit your ability to use these resources, but to give you confidence that you may use them freely and enthusiastically within your ministry.

We hope these materials help you create a Christmas experience that is simple, meaningful, memorable, and full of grace.

Use them well.

Use them often.

Make room for wonder.

Merry Christmas,

Steve McCurdy
The StoryMaster
StoryMaster Media